

JOURNAL OF POPULAR MUSIC STUDIES

VOLUME 34 NUMBER 4 DECEMBER 2022

EDITORS' NOTE 1

FIELD NOTES

- Dilla Time: Dan Charnas, Kelley L. Carter, and Robert Glasper in Conversation about the Life and Afterlife of Hip-Hop Producer J Dilla 4
LOREN KAJIKAWA, LAUREN ONKEY, AND GAYLE WALD
-

ARTICLES

- "I'm Gonna Dedicate This One to Miss Franklin": Afro-Protestant Performance Pedagogies and Rethinking the Black Woman's Spiritual Voice 19
AMBRE DROMGOOLE
- The NFT Boom and Bust: Musicians as Productive Laborers in the Post-Streaming Music Industry 39
HANNAH N. KRASIKOV
- Inside the Hip-Hop Moment: Collective Ecstasy on the Bristol Frontline with Krissy Kriss and Tricky Kid, 1987 61
JAMES G. MCNALLY
- From Freedom Dreams to Boomer Nostalgia: Licensing the Cinematic Meanings of Motown 85
LANDON PALMER
- "Gangsta Chi": RZA's Hip Hop Orientalism and Geeky Codeswitching 109
MARK R. VILLEGAS

BOOK REVIEWS

- Review: Beyoncé in the World: Making Meaning with Queen Bey in Troubled Times, by Christina Baade and Kristin A. McGee, eds., reviewed by KáLyn Banks Coghill 132
- Review: Pop Masculinities: The Politics of Gender in the Twenty-First Century Popular Music, by Kai Arne Hansen, reviewed by Paxton Haven 135
- Review: Who Got the Camera?: A History of Rap and Reality, by Eric Harvey, reviewed by Felicia Angeja Viator 139

CONTRIBUTORS' NOTES 141

CORRIGENDUM 143